

This is NOT intended to disprove Blackpill concepts at all. I have been height-pilled and race-pilled since birth.

Long-time lurker here. You guys are one of the last based places on Reddit. But I'm seeing quite a lot of "roping" posts here from teenagers, so thought to share my experiences and answer any questions you may have.

I moved to America for university and have lived here since. I went to a British boarding school, but was born in curryland, so I don't have a British accent. Most people think I'm American from my accent.

Just turned 30 recently, and was a kiss-less, handhold-less virgin until 21 years old. The posted thot was my first girlfriend and first lay, and this was in my last year of uni.

Looks: At the time when I lost my virginity, I weighed 95 kilos (over 200 lb), and have a small penis (less than 5 inches). A couple years ago, I lost the weight and look much better now (it's on my profile if you're interested), but I'm still 5'4" and Indian. You can't change height, race or dick size.

As a child in curryland, I won a scholarship and got the rare opportunity to go to a British boarding school. I studymaxed there since my scholarship was dependent on excellent results.

Even when I got to university here in America, I still studymaxed, and careermaxxed and didn't let the foot off the gas until I had already received and accepted an offer from BB IB.

I was blue-pilled in high school and thought just being my regular nice guy self would get girls to see that I was a better choice than scumbag Chad or Tyrone. Didn't work. And I tried. A lot. Got a lot of, "omg you're such a great guy, but I only see you as a friend" from girls. Same experience at university. I went to an elite university, so I thought that intelligent girls would like me better. No. They're still ChadOnly.

In college, I read Neil Strauss' The Game because a soy Professor mentioned it in class. That book has zero actionable advice, so I don't recommend reading it. But it got me to look into RedPill. There is a lot of bad advice and a lot of scummy snakeoil salesmen in the PUA community, but I was able to find Roissy and Roosh, who are both legit and actually had actionable advice that work IRL. Roissy's advice is free on the internet, and you can find Roosh's stuff free on the internet as well. Roosh has recently had a mental breakdown and stopped selling those books, so it won't even hurt him financially.

I started approaching women in the summer before my senior year. I was working 80-100 hours/week though, so wasn't able to put in the time. I did get comfortable approaching and chatting up girls. According to the excel model I built, I approached 841 women that summer, got 27 phone numbers, and 3 first dates. I lost frame very quickly due to inexperience, so went back for my senior year a KHHV. Again, I had zero skill at this point, so I hope you won't judge me too harshly.

When I was back at uni, I had a lot of free time, since I had already accepted my return offer in IB, so had zero pressure. I started approaching girls once more, and eventually ascended. She did cheat on me after a few months with a Chad, but that was my fault. I had fell in love with her, and my inner beta was leaking out. I was holding her too lovingly and smiling too much, among other mistakes.

If you're interested, she was a skinny White girl with an average face (second pic in the OP). A 6/10 imo, but I liked her all the same.

It's been almost a decade since then, and I am much, much better with women now. I have a 5% success rate now (up from the initial 0.1%). It may not seem like much, but given my race and height, I am happy with it. Also, I only approach skinny White and Latina girls, so that might play a factor in it. Yes, I still had the same standards for women even when I weighed 200 lb.

Lastly, for my fellow small-dicked brethren (less than 5 inches):

Dick-size does not matter to get laid.

Logically it makes sense. If she's in a position to see your dick, you're already good to go.

Having a big dick helps your confidence no doubt, but it's immaterial in actually getting laid.

EDIT: If you're thinking about roping, I'm not going to tell you not to. I will just ask that you put in 200% effort at everything and wait until you're at least 30yo to do so. There are legit incels in this world, so if you've approached 10,000 women, and really tried your best and still fail to ascend, then sure. But until then, please don't rope. I ascended with the 927th girl I approached, and I was a 5'4" 200lb Indian. Even stblackops2cel mogs me to oblivion, and AlphaDestiny is non-ironically #goals for me.

RESPONSE 1:

Honestly, I would set your LDAR threshold to 10,000 women. I no longer keep an Excel spreadsheet, but am certain I have passed that point by now. It's been almost a decade since I ascended.

Tbf, my standards will seem high to most of you. I only approach skinny White or Latina girls. I did so even when I was a 200 lb whale.

My results are 100x better after I got in shape.

If you are over 5'4", not Indian, not fat, have lower standards, your results will be many magnitudes higher than mine.

RESPONSE 2:

For 180cm White man, the sky is the limit. Still recommend gymmaxxing though.

My results are 100x better after I got in shape.

If you're interested, my weight loss post can be found on my profile. But since you're just slightly overweight, you won't need it.

And absolutely agree on not aiming low. If I can get Becky, you should be able to do so as well.

RESPONSE 3:

Honestly even 5'4" balding Indian is still easier than some other people have it.

Peter Dinklage mogs me face-wise, and is White, but I would still prefer to stay as a 5'4" balding Indian than become a 4'4" White man with Dwarfism.

Another lifefuel is that even he ascended with Becky. And it was before he became famous.

RESPONSE 4:

I don't do online at all. I have a zero percent success rate with Tinder.

My IRL friend did a post on the TRP sub last year. It's gold. The moral of the story is to approach in person.

EDIT: It's " Tinder Experiment - A Tale of 2 Profiles "

He's a 5'6" White man with god-tier physique. He also makes $100k+ tl;dr version of that post is that he swiped right on 6,000 girls.

Matched with 80. Chose to message 20 of them. Ended up sleeping with only 6 girls.

RESPONSE 5 (over several posts):

You know what they say, if at first you don't succeed, try 926 more times.

Where did you find the 927 females to approach?

I spent the summer in NYC. The 841 women are from there.

The rest were from my college campus.

Did you cold approach or build up a conversation in classes?

Cold approach.

I never date within my friend group, and instead use my female friends as social proof. Also helps with Dread game if my current girl sees me being chummy with my Stacy friends.

What's the conversation starter when you cold approach?

In my last approach, I was at the grocery store and saw a girl I liked.

Asked her to step aside and not hog all the salt. After she did, I asked her if she uses that particular salt brand all the time. It started a convo.

I'm not naturally gifted with conversation skills. This is why it took me 900+ approaches to ascend.

Practice is the only method that guarantees success.

Approaching 10 girls will do more for you than reading 100 books on topic.

There is no shortcut. The only people who find success early on are blue-pilled Chads and Chad-lites who suddenly start using game for the first time. The TRP sub here is filled with these types.

I'd imagine you felt nervous your first few times? How did you overcome the urge to pussy out? or are you naturally low inhib?

No, I am naturally not good with people at all. Had zero friends in high school. Thankfully never got bullied. Tbf, bullies probably didn't even know I existed.

Read How to win friends and influence people by Dale Carnegie. Started making friends in college.

And first 500 approaches, my hands were sweaty and I was stuttering half the time. Still kept powering on. It got easier, but never easy.

I will acknowledge my willpower is uncommon. But given that every other facet of my existence have been nerfed, I don't think you should envy me.

I'm not super intelligent imo. First time I took the SAT, I got 1800. After slaving away and spending literally over 1000 hours studying, after my 4th retake, I managed to score 2300.

RESPONSE 6:

I'm a 5/10 on my absolute best day. Not at all Chadpreet. Big nose, big ears, hairy earlobe, and micro-hairs growing on my nose. Yet even at age 30, still cannot grow a beard. So can't even beardfraud to hide my weak jaw.

But I do not have any deformities like caved in skull, 3rd degree burns or other major physical deformities, so still count myself lucky. Things could have been worse.

And I have been balding since I was a teenager.

Could you tell me about your mindset towards rejection? Do you not feel fear before rejection or shame afterwards? If you do, how do you deal with it? How do you keep a positive mindset after being rejected?

I am a practicing stoic, and it helps keep my outlook positive in the face of adversity.

A Guide to the Good Life - The Ancient Art of Stoic Joy legit changed my life. I was a Philosophy major in college and stumbled upon this gem. I would not be the man I am today without this book.

tl;dr version is that only I, and I alone have the power to control my state of mind. Very difficult to actually put into practice, and even now it is an active process.

For worst rejection?

There's no single instance that pops into my mind, but there are a tiny fraction of women who laughed at me and asked me to look into the mirror, and was visibly offended that I had the courage to approach them. This is probably fewer than 50 girls though in almost a decade. Not at all a common occurrence. Most likely rejection is a polite no.

If you approach 500+ women, you will start to see patterns.

It's been 10 years since I ascended, and since then have likely approached 10,000+ women. I cannot recall being surprised by anything a woman has done in the last 5 years at least.

RESPONSE 7 (about Finance career):

Regardless of whether or not you go to a target school, networking is essential.

I had OCR, and went to a target, and still sent out 500+ linkedin messages to alumni to get my sophomore year internship.

I pay it forward of course when students from my alma mater message me.

RESPONSE 8:

Blue-pillled Chads with no game and minimal effort, are still doing better than I am.

Red Pill isn't magic.

But the point isn't to out-do Chad. The point is do the best that you can.

Even if the improvement is from 0 lifetime partners to 1, it's still an improvement.

For me, it was from 0% success to 0.1% success, and eventually after 10 years, 5% success rate.

RESPONSE to "He must work as a janitor, there is no other option":

I work in Finance. But it doesn't matter because I'm not betabuxxing these thots.

If you read the post, I studymaxxed and then careermaxxed. Now I'm gym-maxxing.

My money is my money. Their money is also my money.

Nothing wrong with being a janitor though. Every job deserves respect.

RESPONSE 10:

I like Indian and Asian girls as well. But they treat their own men so terribly, that it turns me off.

Indian and Asian girls will choose a 4/10 White man over a much higher quality Indian/Asian man. Truly Absurd.

White and Latina girls are the only ones who treat their own men with respect.

If they cannot treat their own people well, I don't want any part of them.

RESPONSE 11:

Nah, shounen anime have women falling in love with loser MC with zero effort on his part.

I had to work for every thot I ever slayed.

One of my favorite mangas is Baby Steps. The MC had zero athletic ability, but through outrageous amounts of hard work, he became a pro Tennis player. And even then he can't win against naturally gifted players.

Very hard to find these types of Manga/Anime these days. Most of the stuff out there is wish fulfillment garbage. Jobless Reincarnation is Isekai wish-fulfillment trash, and is still rated 8.40 on MAL.

RESPONSE 12:

If you are genuinely shorter than 5'4", White, and are not a mentalcel, then I recommend Asian or Indian girls. Bonus if they're FOB or you travel there yourself.

These thots will forgive any sin if it's committed by a White man.

Being debt free should be your first priority. Put yourself above women.

Having said that, even having an American or EU passport will go far if you SEAmass.

Just don't make the mistake of marrying one of these thots.

RESPONSE 13:

Even in NYC, seeing a curry with a Becky or above is rare. Maybe once a week.

My willpower may be an outlier though. I do recognize that not many can survive being rejected by 900+ women in a row. It hurt every time.

What I did to lose the weight was much harder than anything else I have ever done though, so it puts things in perspective. It's the pinned post on my profile if you're interested.

RESPONSE 14:

For skinny-fat guys, you do not need to go ZeroCarb. It is primarily for people who are naturally fat.

For guys like you, eat whatever you want, as long as your protein intake is high. Even buckets of KFC chicken is fine.

And start going to the gym, and follow Stronglifts or Starting Strength. Any program is fine, but make sure you stick to it.

After 1 year of doing the above, if you're still not happy with the result, then steroidmaxx.

Just be sure to be educated about the topic. MorePlatesMoreDates is an excellent starting point.

RESPONSE to "Bro we don't wanna look at your fat disgusting body"

That's the point, nephew.

I ascended with a body that even incels are disgusted by.

You have no excuse to rope.

RESPONSE 16:

Studymaxxing and moneymaxxing is for my own benefit. It has no direct effect on my sex life.

There are tangential benefits though. I can afford to live in a $4,000/month apartment that is walking distance from clubs, bars, etc which makes dating logistics easy.

But many of my coworkers (all of whom mog me to oblivion) are still either incels (haven't had sex in years, if ever) or married to a post-wall shrew and in a dead-bedroom situation.

Many people think that all they have to do is be a good little boy and studymaxx and moneymaxx. They are wrong.

RESPONSE 17:

Yes, the girls were alone. I did not have the confidence to approach groups. Have approached groups since then, and it's very poor ROI.

And it's been almost 10 years since then, so I don't really remember everything with perfect clarity. But with the girl I ascended with, she was sitting in the quad doing her homework and I asked questions about her phone.

I asked her about the features and whatnot, and this got the convo started.

RESPONSE to "How much was she for the night?"

Fucked her probably over 300 times in the entire time we were together.

Spent less than $100, and probably closer to $50 total for the duration of the relationship.

Absolute worst case scenario:

33 cents per fuck. Better value than Walmart.

RESPONSE 19:

I know you're probably being sarcastic. But i'll give you a real answer.

Yes I did cum inside her.

No anal. Don't like the idea of shit on my dick. And I always rawdog, so condom isn't an option.

Perfectly happy with normal sex.

RESPONSE to "was she a virgin"

No. She said her n-count was 3.

Real number was probably closer to 30.

It doesn't matter. She wasn't truly mine. It was just my turn.

RESPONSE to DMs 1:

JBW is supreme amongst Indian and Asian women across even Millennials brother. And I only started having my current 5% success rate a couple years ago. Blue-pilled Chad can still out-pull me with no Game and zero effort though.

Nah. Even in NYC, I only see a curry with a Becky or above maybe once a week. And they are all Chadpreet.

White guys with Asian girls is super common, but the attractive Indian girls I have seen are all with GigaChadpreet, instead of their looksmatch. Indian girls have an unfortunate tendency to fat, and become aunties by age 25, so finding Indian adult women who are skinny is a struggle.

Nah Asian girls are JBW. I often see attractive Asian girls with 4/10 White men. The kpop thing is a myth I've only seen on reddit. The few Asians girls I've seen with Asian men are ChangOnly. The only "good" thing about Indian girls is that unlike the Asians, the attractive ones mostly seem to go for Chadpreet instead of a 4/10 White boy.

Lifting is mandatory, regardless of whatever else you do. If you don't know where to start, then buy Arnold's Bodybuilding Encyclopedia. Make sure to ignore the diet section if you're naturally fat. That book will teach you the various exercises. After that, follow "Stronglifts". For diet, Ted Naiman, MD has an excellent and easy to understand writeup about nutrition that I can vouch for.

RESPONSE to DMs 2:

To avoid the ban, the mods should have preemptively quarantined us tbh. Based posts are an anathema to Soydit.

2 of the subs I follow have been quarantined. Thinspo was a great sub where god-tier women posted their own selfies, but obese kweens took offence, and forced the sub into quarantine. One of my female friends used to be a regular there.

RedPill sub is about self-improvement mostly, yet soyboys and blue-pilled cucks took offence, and got us quarantined. It unfortunately has a lot of Chad-lites new to RedPill who post deluded stuff, but the sidebar is solid gold. It's become the main place to post RedPill stuff since Roosh suffered his mental breakdown. Highly recommend lurking the RedPill sub and reading the sidebar.

RESPONSE to DMs 3:

Yes, practicing Stoicism does help actually. It's improved my quality of life by a significant margin. People who knew me from years back often remark on how "positive" I am nowadays. They attribute it to my career success, but they are incorrect in their assessment.

For girls, it's important to have standards. They can be low, but you must have them. For instance, my only standard is that a girl be skinny.

She can have small boobs or big. She can be rich or poor. PhD or high school drop out. Literally anything is okay as long as she's skinny.

And yeah girls don't give a shit about your income.

Moneymaxxing helps pay for my $4,000/month apartment that's walking distance from clubs, bars etc which help dating logistics though. If you're moving to NYC, try Gramercy instead of Murray Hill. I'm a VP now, and suppress a sigh whenever I see yet another Analyst say they live in Murray Hill.

BasedCurrycel from Yesterday's Post (5'4" balding Indian ascended with Becky

To jog your memory, I was the one who made the post about ascending as a 5'4" 200 lb balding Indian with a small penis (less than 5 inches). The worst possible difficulty setting outside of dwarfism, missing limbs and similar ailments.

Yesterday's post was deleted by the mods. But if you guys have any questions, this is the last time I will probably answer them. I will start my new job soon, so will unlikely have time to do long-form Q&A in the foreseeable future.

Also, please don't blame the mods for removing the post. Boardie does a great job in keeping this sub from getting the reddit ban hammer. It's much better that some posts are removed here and there, than have the whole sub being banned.

If you go on my profile, you can still access the post that the mods removed. Please read the stuff there so that we're not going over stuff already answered.

With that having been said, please feel free to ask questions.

EDIT: Some thoughts

Cities: Not all places are created equal. From my experience, Seattle, DC, SF and Toronto are terrible. NYC is good. London is good.

Height: When I was starting out, I thought girls shorter than me would be more receptive because I would be still be taller than them. False. Some of the fastest rejections have been by sub 5 feet tall Latinas. Most of the girls I've ultimately been successful with have been around my height or slightly taller.

Dating Apps: If you are 5'5" or below, delete the app. I'm serious. If 5'6" to 5'10", then keep the app, but have low expectations. If you're 5'10" or above, write "6 feet tall" or "180 cm" depending on where you live, and expect moderate success. Unless you are Chad or Chad-lite, dating apps should not be your primary source for women.

It should go without saying, but I'll still repeat it. Heightfraud 2+ inches to your actual height. Everyone does it, and you don't want to be the one autistic who lists their exact height down to the millimeter. I don't like it either, but we don't live in Should-Land, we live in the real world.

RESPONSE 1:

Every time I see "success" posts, it's usually a JBW or some other normie. No real incels ascending.

Same with weight loss to be honest. It's always these Chads who drank a few too many beers in college, or teenagers losing their babyfat. I have never seen a lifelong obese man losing weight after age 25. Never. Literally had to do it myself to show others it can be done.

RedPill forums do it too. Some blue-pilled Chad-lite learns basic Game for the first time in his life and is swimming in poon in his first month. Swindling "pua gurus" market these cases as if this can be replicated by incels, and turn otherwise good men to lose hope and LDAR.

Red Pill isn't magic.

But the point isn't to out-do Chad. The point is do the best that you can.

Even if the improvement is from 0 lifetime partners to 1, it's still an improvement.

For me, it was from 0% success to 0.1% success initially.

Then eventually after 10 years, 5% success rate.

Lastly, never pay for anything. Any seminars, courses, anything. All the necessary information can be found for free on the internet. And then put it to practice yourself.

Practice is the only method that guarantees success.

Approaching 10 girls will do more for you than reading 100 books on topic.

There is no shortcut. Again, the only people who find success early on are blue-pill Chads and Chad-lites who suddenly start using Game for the first time.

I am naturally not good with people at all. Had zero friends in high school. Thankfully never got bullied. Tbf, bullies probably didn't even know I existed.

Read How to win friends and influence people by Dale Carnegie. Started making friends in college.

For my first 500 approaches, my hands were sweaty and I was stuttering half the time. Still kept powering on. It got easier, but never easy.

Even 10 years later, I still don't like doing approaches.

A main fear I had was getting arrested or something while doing approaches.

In reality, it is very unlikely to get arrested unless you are a mentalcel and/or have terrible hygiene.

I have approached over 10,000 women in the last decade, and this is the worst reaction I have ever had:

There are a tiny fraction of women who laughed at me and asked me to look in the mirror, and was visibly offended that I had the courage to approach them.

This is probably fewer than 50 girls though in almost a decade. Not at all a common occurrence. Most likely rejection is a polite no.

RESPONSE 2:

What you are describing is blue-pill ideology. Dating apps and social circle game IS blue-pill normie swill.

And Friendzone Fiona will never fuck you. She may sample the Chad-lite in your group, but never you.

I never date within my friend group, and instead use my female friends as social proof. Also helps with Dread game if my current girl sees me being chummy with my Stacy friends.

Do not beta orbit them. Instead, be real actual friends with girls. Treat them exactly the same as you would another man. Girls will initially push back and try to get you to do things for them and turn you into an orbiter.

Don't blame them. It is their nature and they cannot help it. Even after being friends for several years, my female friends occasionally try to pull me into their orbit. They are always met with firm refusal.

If in doubt whether or not a request is meant to pull you into their orbit, ask yourself if a 5'4" obese balding Indian man asked you for the same favor, would you do it? If the answer is no, then you shouldn't do it for Becky either.

Lastly, I have had zero success with dating apps. I am certain every girl I have slept with IRL would have swiped left on my Tinder profile.

RESPONSE 3:

I'm going to level with you here. You're not the only one who thinks what I did sounds daunting.

I am a shit human honestly, with few if any redeeming features. I am not tall, handsome, or even super smart.

But one thing I do want is to put in so much effort into every facet of my life that when people ask the "secret to my success", and I tell them, it makes them want to give up, because they cannot imagine putting in that amount of effort themselves. I do apologize for that.

Again, I'm not super intelligent. First time I took the SAT, I got 1800. After slaving away and spending literally over 1000 hours studying, after my 4th retake, I managed to score 2300. Most people on the collegeconfidential forums told me it was impossible to make such a drastic improvement in scores. After I did that, they tell me that they can't imagine slaving away and studying for literal thousands of hours to increase scores in a meaningless standardized test. But I did just that because I wanted to go to an elite university.

When I finally figured out why I am fat and what it is that makes humans fat, I immediately took measures to lose the weight, and lost this weight in 100 days (it's stickied on my profile). Even in that thread, you can see people balk at it, and say that they themselves could never imagine doing so because it is too difficult.

Seems like I was dealt a shitty hand by fate, so it would be only too easy to just LDAR. I won't give them that satisfaction. I will go to the elite university where I don't deserve to go. I will get the ripped body that I was not supposed to have. I will fuck these thots who were supposed to ignore my existence.

Join me. Don't rope. Don't LDAR. Don't give them that satisfaction. Let's struggle to the end.

RESPONSE 4:

My "100 days" post is stickied on my profile.

After going through that post, if you have any further questions that were not answered in that thread, would be happy to answer them.

Would like to mention though that I'm the naturally fat type. I have been obese since birth until age 28.

If you're skinny fat, you do not need to go ZeroCarb. It is primarily for people who are naturally fat.

For skinny-fat guys, eat whatever you want, as long as your protein intake is high. Even buckets of KFC chicken is fine.

And start going to the gym, and follow Stronglifts or Starting Strength. Any program is fine, but make sure you stick to it.

After 1 year of doing the above, if you're still not happy with the result, then steroidmaxx.

Just be sure to be educated about the topic. MorePlatesMoreDates is an excellent starting point.

RESPONSE 5:

1. Roosh and Roissy's stuff is free on the internet. Follow the Poon Commandments as seriously as you do State and Federal laws.
2. Bear in mind, it's been almost 10 years since I ascended. Now, whenever I am outside the house, even running errands, if I see a girl I like, I stop and start a convo. I always ask them a question about an object they are wearing/holding or something they are doing at the moment. It could be a phone, their laptop, etc.

In my last approach, I was at the grocery store and saw a girl I liked.

Asked her to step aside and not hog all the salt. After she did, I asked her if she uses that particular salt brand all the time. It started a convo.

Although I have said this multiple times before, it bears repeating. I have a 5% success rate even after 10 years. This means that I don't sleep with 95% of the women I approach. The grocery store girl? I got her number and set a date that she agreed to. Very high likelihood of her flaking at the last minute. Even if she shows up, maybe something goes wrong. Maybe she has a boyfriend and wanted some D on the side and is now having second thoughts.

All of the above has happened to me within the last 12 months.

Lastly, the purpose of the pics was to prove I was who I said I was. Since I have never seen anyone do what I did, it would not have been believed if I did not post proof.

Given the responses in that thread, it should now be obvious and there is no further need for pics. If you're curious, it was a skinny white girl Becky that you can find anywhere.

RESPONSE 6:

Haha honestly stblackops2cel legit mogs me to oblivion. One of the posters even called me out saying I should have kept my grotesque pictures to myself. I gave a good comeback saying that at least now he has no excuse to rope since I managed to ascend with a body even incels are disgusted by.

Since you're 5'8" I hope you're claiming 5'10".

And rejections are a part of being a man. We don't live life in tutorial mode.

Even 10 years after ascending, I still have a 95% failure rate.

One advice I would give is to have standards. They can be low, but you must have them. But at the same time you must be realistic.

My scale for women:

HB6: Skinny white/latina girl = automatic 6.

HB5: If the above girl has skrillex haircut or acne, downgrade to a 5. Slightly overweight girls with pretty faces also fall here.

HB7: Skinny girl with above-average face.

HB8: Skinny girl with pretty face.

HB9: Skinny girl with fit, firm, tight bodies, and a pretty face.

HB10: Does not exist in reality. This would be a virgin, teenage Alexandra Daddario, without any piercings or tattoos. Most importantly she is not hypergamous, and even if I Beta and simp, she will still remain loyal.

As it's apparent, my only deal breaker is that a girl be skinny. Due to the obesity epidemic in America, it narrows down the number to 10% of adult women. In NYC, that ratio is slightly better.

You don't have to share my preferences, but you must have standards.

Many men think having no standards will increase their likelihood of getting sex. They are wrong.

For my personal experiences with women, check out my initial thread.

For Game, check out Roosh and Roissy.

For dealing with rejection, I can only tell you what works for me.

I am a practicing stoic, and it helps keep my outlook positive in the face of adversity.

A Guide to the Good Life - The Ancient Art of Stoic Joy legit changed my life. I was a Philosophy major in college and stumbled upon this gem. I would not be the man I am today without this book.

tl;dr version is that only I, and I alone have the power to control my state of mind. Very difficult to actually put into practice, and even now it is an active process.

RESPONSE 7:

I'm 5'4" as stated in both this post and the initial one. Everyone adds 2+ inches when claiming their height. This is why women think 6' is the average height because every 5'10" guy and some ambitious 5'9" guys are claiming it.

Likewise, I claim 5'6" despite being only 5'4".

My 5'6" friend claims 5'8" and so the cycle continues.

Women don't want you to be a truthful autistic and tell them your exact height down to the millimeter. They just want to feel safe knowing that they are with a "normal" sized man.

Same with everything else in life. Do you think the sub 100 IQ TSA staff feeling you up at the airport is keeping you safe? He isn't. It just makes everyone feel better.

Feels > Reality.

One last thing. MGTOW are incels in denial. Nobody cares they are "going their own way". The only people they are depriving are themselves.

RSEPONSE 8:

Sounds like you're doing all the right things. And yeah I've been dealt a shite hand from fate, but it could have been worse. At least I have all my limbs and I don't have dwarfism or an even worse ailment.

Look up "Hasbulla". He's an 18 year old still in the body of a 4 year old child. Even looks like a literal baby. He's still making the most of life.

There is an queer climate of victim pedestalization that permeates even this sub. Where people try to one-up each other by how much more "over" it is for them in comparison to someone else. What do we actually gain by doing this?

Anyways, if you go into IB like I did, your first few years will be grueling so make sure to take care of your health. Don't go all out on the Seamless. You won't have time/energy to for the gym during your Analyst stint if you want to make top bucket. But you can still control your diet.

And thanks for your post. Makes me happy to see fellow currycels succeed.

We're all gonna make it brah!

RESPONSE to "How important has penis size been in your experience?"

Have zero difficulty retaining women due to penis size. The women act like they are having orgasms, most of the time multiple orgasms, when we have sex. They could be acting, but I don't care either way.

However, a small penis restricts your choice in positions. I prefer doggy and missionary, so it works just fine for me. But I have a 4.5 inch penis, so laying side-by-side and standing sex doesn't work.

Some tips:

Multiple girls have told me they want my "big cock". If it happens to you, no-sell it. Pretend you hear it all the time. The first time I heard this blatant falsehood, I had a poor reaction. Whether or not they are delusional, flattering me or saying it out of habit, I will never know.

Don't make a big deal of it yourself. And no matter what never verbalize your insecurities to any girl.

And I'm 30 yo.

RESPONSE 10:

The ratio of attractive women to men is atrocious in the other cities I listed.

SF is cancer. A 4 thinks she's a 9. Most women overvalue themselves to some degree, but not to this outrageous extent. It's made exponentially worse by all the soyboy techies there making 100k+ who constantly simp for these thots.

NYC and London are much, much better in comparison. My fellow Finance bros aren't perfect either, but since we're nerds working 80-100 hours/week slaving away in a job we hate, most of us are blackpilled to at least a small degree. Hollywood portrayal of us is ludicrous.

Also heard Los Angeles is good as well. But I don't have personal experience there.

RESPONSE 11:

I only day game. I don't drink (Muslim), so bars are a no go. And similar to dating apps, nightclubs are worthless if you're under 5'5".

Only rarely have someone tried to amog me while I day game. If it happens, I ignore his existence and keep talking until he goes away. Depending on how much the girl likes me, she will either follow suit, or she'll monkey branch and latch onto Chad. If so, I walk away. Women are plentiful, no sense in fighting over any one of them.

RESPONSE 12:

Read How to Win Friends and Influence People by Dale Carnegie.

It'll teach you basic social skills. Without the absolute minimum social skills, it's impossible to succeed with women unless you are at least a Chad-lite.

I had zero friends all the way up till college. My problem was that I don't understand many basic human desires. For instance, I don't see why it's fun to go clubbing or go to parties. I have infinitely more fun staying at home and reading manga by myself.

Starting in university, I forced myself to make friends, create a social circle and to do social activities. I'm 30 years old, and I still don't like it, but I do it because I must. I see going to parties as an obligation no different than going to work and slaving away at my desk.

RESPONSE 13:

Before ascending, I tried finding a 5'4" curry who is successful with women to get some motivation, but was unable to find a single one. Not one.

That's part of the reason why I stopped lurking and made the post.

Felt the same for my "100 Days" post as well. In the entire history of the internet, was unable to find a single instance of a lifelong obese man losing weight after age 25. Not one, until I made my post.

Genuinely wonder if everyone else who has done the same things as me are super humble and never post anything anywhere, or if I'm the first person to do these things.

And yeah, men 5'5" and below should delete their dating apps.
