

Early game(getting to know, 1st date)

- Preselection(objectively goodlooking, IG, Female friends, gf, story telling)
- Social proof(Friends, family, NT places, community, respect)
- Texting(for both early and mid game)
 - + Emotional baiting texting as opener, assumption stacking and making cold reads. "you survived the day?"
"just saw something that reminded me of you 😊"
"what chaos are you causing today"
 - + L.O.L method(not logical, open ended questions, leading to sth)
 - + Humour + teasing is a cheatcode
 - + Texting not for getting to know, it should be in person
 - + Using lower case, short casual wording
 - + Don't panic when the text is delayed, sometimes girl dont want to be view as too eager, or logistic issue
 - + After 1st date/sex, texting should be light call back to sth from the date, casual 2nd date suggestion/tag along, 3rd date onwards warmup teasing abit then ask out
 - + Don't text all day bc it is = loser, also ideally don't initiate texts everytime = low value

4 types:

Silence: Never arrange a meetup from here, 1st ghost wait 3days-7days. Say sth funny,interesting, kind of call back to previous conversation ie. "You're quite talkative today!" "if you're dead I hope i got invited to the funeral ^^" shit test: it is expected even very high interest girl and usually comes after a guy showing interest/feelings.

-Agree + exaggerate it: usually sth negative then turn it as positive and make it playful

-Playful deflection/ball in her court: usually sth she points out emotional

-Never defensive! : over explaining = fail

Logical: This is the almost good state of being, just smoothly transition to more fun dynamic positive/teasing: Ideal state, highest form of interest, keep it here most of the time and push for meeting here. 1st date foot in the door technique, 2nd+ can be tag along, after 3-4 dates if vibes all good she will start initiating

Mid game(Dates, inbetween date, before official LTR)

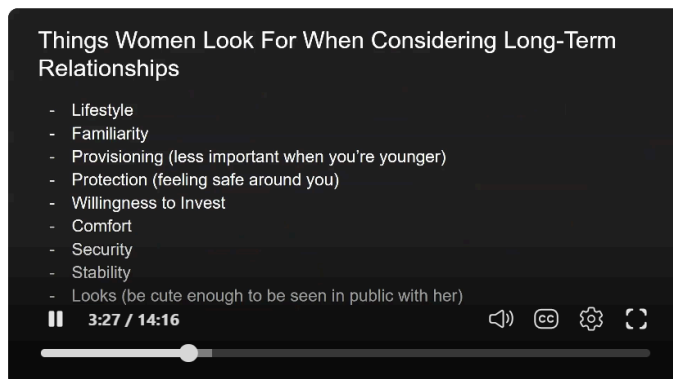

- Good topics(immediate environment, shows, traveling,[her interests, her current obsession, her fav family member etc)
- Charming and playful like long lost friend>Romantic
- always assumed she has bodycounts already
- Escalation sequence: Create comfort(greeting, offering) 20-40mins>Connection(sitting closer, light touch when joking, hand on her back when walking past, showing on phone)>ask for consent(Do u want to come closer? Can I kiss you?)
- avoid Q&A
- Have the mindset "I'm just evaluating her to see if she's good enough to the other options or if shes a good fit". Don't have try to impress her or try to win over her mindset(it gonna makes your behaviour icky)

- after/between the date/slept together, dont text first 2-4days(let her wondering). If she doesn't text you can reopen in 4-7days and schedule another one. Soonly after 3 dates if the vibe is good, she will be start initiating herself. Women loves slower over time.
- randomly disappearing for awhile/not answering her texts(being busy with life)
- leaving early on a date bc u need to be somewhere(something u wanna do that's important)

Late game(Official LTR)

- Lock in myself(acing in specialty, personal projects, general health wellness, creative music)
- Never let her feels like she already has you fully/Never be won over too easy, aka withholding or delay commitment as much as possible(attention not all on her, into something else more important)
- Less time for her(it is valuable, not free)
- Life outside LTR(Preselection= looks, other girls, social proof= friends, family, girls, group)
- More gravity than her like the Sun(Life more fulfilling and purposeful than hers)
- Hot(i like u) and Cold(i dont need u, u not that good i could find someone else), ie hot hot cold
- Expect testing, even if she's high interest it's normal
- pulling away is inevitable, better to do it first esp after slept together, bc after slept together the power now should be on the guy and biologically she wants to be the one chasing(either a high priority guy comeback in picture if no mistakes being made or too much time together need space, or she loses interest from icks)
- reward good behavior, punishes bad behavior
- have abit drama(Good drama: her complaining not enough attention or seeing her enough), (bad drama: being controlling of her esp freedom)

Maintaining Her Interest Level (Part 1)

Never ever say/show

- Neediness/over invest(it signals weakness incomplete to win in life by yourself, fix every aspects in life so everything is great already)

- Saying "I love you" or my feelings, gain nothing (the attraction stops here, no more chasing, no more wondering)
- Rushing LTR(relationship benefit female more anyways, should see it as a burden)
- telling her about "our" future, it will be too over invested already, be present enjoy the moment
- Telling secrets/plans, she's not your mom
- Talking too much with a girl(A successful man already figured out life, a calm nonchalant vibes signal competency in navigating obstacles in life)
- if she vents(don't be therapist trying to fix or dismissive, just acknowledge like " that's frustrating, yeah that would annoy me too")
- if she asked about previous ltr why failed? Just say "we just grew apart, different wavelengths)

Cold approach game

- Practice socialize
- It should come from an opportunity for her to speak with you(so don't say sorry to bother you)
- Count to 3 before approach
- Don't approach from behind ever, should be from front and make her acknowledge first
- False time constraints(kind of social proof, " I have somewhere else to be ish")
- Less questions, make a guess about her instead
- self -amusing: playfully assuming, ei. After handshake "ur hands are rough, r u mechanic?" "You're the only girl ive met with goofy ass smile". Refer to environment/nearby objects

Positive + for her attraction:

- Reverse role: Making it seem like she's the one chasing. "This is too fast, we gotta slow it down, making it seem like her wanting to initiate sex"
- Planting seed: planting the idea to get yes before hard closing, makes her close her eyes and imagine future in 5 years
- Teasing/negging her
- Disqualifying yourself to her: saying sth that we wouldn't be good together etc
- Qualifying her: evaluating if she's good enough compared to ur standard or options

Breakup

- Nonchalant when she initiates breakup
- No contact(she will be wondering, unless she texted first, watching stories don't count)
- If she contacted first just say "hi, nice to hear. How are you feeling?" 2am
